SOME COMMENTS ON ABSEES

Leonard SCHAPIRO, London School of Economics and Political Science:
"Everyone working in the Soviet field owes a great deal to ABSEES. I know of no aid to study which provides a better guide than ABSEES."

Abram BERGSON, Harvard:
". . . it has already established itself as a valuable research tool."

Morris BORNSTEIN, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor:
"Because of their reliability, ABSEES abstracts of articles and books are widely cited as source material for scholarly articles."

Gregory GROSSMAN, University of California, Berkeley:
"I could hardly do without such a publication as yours which gives me a most convenient and reliable overview of the trends in economic thought and practice in the USSR and the other East European countries. No other source comes even close to doing it as comprehensively as does ABSEES."

Marshall D. SHULMAN, Columbia:
"The journal . . . performs an invaluable function."

Donald W. TREADGOLD, University of Washington, Seattle:
"I am full of admiration for the fact that ABSEES is able to provide abstracts of a selection of books as well as articles. I always find the abstracts to be objective and well-informed."

Gregory WALKER, Bodleian Library, Oxford:
"It enables library and information staff to keep themselves au courrant with minimum effort. The benefit is reflected in better-informed selection of material and assistance to readers."
